My Summer Party

One celebration I remember well was my summer party, it was to celebrate getting out of school and summer. It took place in July ~~at my house~~ of 2002 at my house on 23 Holbrook Rd Seymour, CT.

To get ~~preparede~~ prepared for the party I made some black invatations with confetti drawn on them. Then we had to figure out what to buy for food next we had to think of what to do. Last we cleaned the pool out as well as we could and my mom and I rented a 20ft tall light and dark blue blow-up water slide.

When the day came a lot more people showed up than I thought. The water-slide was a hit, all the kids were either on it, in the pool, or eating. The adults were either talking or eating. I estimated 30-40 people there. No one seemed to be having a bad time either. It was important to me because it was my first summer party and because everyone had fun.
