The most important event I go to would be a pow-wow, I dont know if you would call it an event but thats how I see it. A pow-wow is ~~A~~ something like a ceremony its just were everyone gets together and have a good time. I been going to pow-wow's ever since I was a little girl and I still go but when I was younger I really didnt understand anything they did but now that I'm older and they talk to me about more stuff I understand.

In my words I think experience means that your good at something, I cant really explaine it but I been told I got good experience working with younger children you know when I was younger I really didnt understand that much there wasnt anybody there to help me understand, but what I'm really trying to say is alot has changed in my life you go thru alot from when you was a little kid to now I'm just telling you some different events and experiences I have in my life, I hope you understand what I'm trying to say.
