My first time skiing

Whene I was in 4th grade I whent om a fild trip to swicser.
First, I whent om the bunny hill it was boring I felt like sleping zzzz.

Whene it was after lunch I whent om the ski lifts but to get there I had to go down a hill "Weeee Swosh"! at the same time snow got in my hair.

After that, My friend and I whent down a Belly steep hill, we both crashed half way down. We where one of the fastest skiers out of all the 4th graders.

And that was my fild trip to swictser

It was a warm July day when my family was having our annual ladybug picnic. This picnic is a tradition in my family. My grandparents were holding it in their new gazebo out in their backyard. We had a big ladybug cake, ladybug cupcakes, and ladybug cookies even ladybug punch! One year we had seen seven ladybugs but, we hoped to see even more this year. I sat and waited for ladybugs to come, but nothing came.

Then I saw somthing red in the gazebo. It was a ladybug! All of the sudden there were three more, four! I couldn't believe my eyes there was a whole pack of them! My family rushed outside. They were as surprised as a kid in a fire drill. "Look at that!" Said my brother. None of us could believe it. "How did all of them get here"? asked my dad. Finally we found the cause. They were attracted to the cake! I had never seen twenty ladybugs before, but now I can say I have. If you ever wish to see twenty ladybugs I would just bake an enormous ladybug cake and throw yourself a ladybug picnic.

The earwig army and the bite

AHHHH! That is what usualy happens when a huge, creepy, crawly, and scary insect jumps out at you. Your stomatch clenches, you jump and ~~screa~~ scream. It is just plain scary. I want to tell you about a story when I was four. My best friend Emily and her little sister Hannah came over to my house. Emily and I went to the back yard. Then I shouted "Tag your it." Litte did I know I would meet thousands of creepy, crawly insects.

We played tag for a while, and got pretty bored. We then started to lie down when I decided to call my other best friend over, Trevor. When he came over we played in the dirt pile. On the way there we ~~met~~ met HUGE, ducie, and slimy worms. I was freaked out. We got bored again, and didn't know what to do. So Trevor suggusted basketball. Freeze right there. This is where we meet those horrible insects. AHHHHHHH!

We went to the toy trunk where the basketballs were. We had no idea what was waiting for us, I opened the trunk and..... And, Thousand of millions of ear wigs, horrible, hidious, slimy ear wigs. In the middle of those creatures there was a preymantis. A bright green shiny preymantis. I picked it up skin prickling as I touched the earwigs. I had the preymantis in my palm. It lowered it's head. Pain unexpectidly surged through my palm. Now remember I was four. At first I thought it had magical powers, but it only bit me. It hurt and swelled, but it was worth it getting to see such a pretty preymantis. Here is a tip. Never get an insect or else... You know.... AHHHHHH!

Have you ever had a ~~scary~~ scary bug or insect at your hous? A creepy one? A ~~a~~ little, big interesting or funny one? ~~Maby~~ ~~Maybe~~ Maybe even alot at a time. Well let me tell you about an experience I had with alot of them.

It was ~~about~~ about 4 or 5 years ago at my old house, and I was going outside to play on a Saturday. I think. Right when I stepped outside ~~is~~ I saw a huge swarm of bugs. (I think they were mosquitoes). Well. any way the bugs covered my whole yard, and about every quarter of an inch there was a bug. There was dead ones all over my slide that looked like black dots with wings. I am glad that if they were mosquitoes none of them bit me.

Another experience I had with bugs was a scary, hary, black, and big spider! When I first moved into my old house we had a couple of pits in our backyard. When me my older brother and sister looked in one we saw the scary, hary, black, and big spider! It was enormous. About the size of a small or medium dinner plate! After we saw it we started throwing rocks at it. We finally killed it. I never want to see a spider like that again.

There one more about a big ~~beetl~~ beetle but if I wrote about it ~~it~~ I would not have ~~roo~~ room to finish it. Lets just say we chopped its head of and grew ~~antor~~ another head that looke ~~alein~~ is alienish.

There is a couple storys about bugs in my life.

Scary Spider

One morning I went into the garage. When I got out there I yelled "AAAHHH. My dad came out and said "What". There's a big spider like the size of my hand. And he said "Well stomp on it". I said "NNOOO". My dad said "Yes". Then I started to cry. My dad said "Stomp on it or you will be grounded". I said "OK". So I did and when I stomped on it, it jumpedi. And so I did it again and when I did it, it jumped into the lawn more and the lawnmore was still on. So it died in the lawnmore. Then my dad told me to get inside. And I said "Okay". So when I went in I turned on the tv and sat on the couch. Then I felt something moving. I looked inside the couch and there was a spider. So I got up and I took off the pillows and cushions. Then I stomped on the spider. Then I got a little broom and dust pan and picked it up. Then I went into the backyard and caught some crickets and grasshoppers. Then I brought them into the house and put them on my dresser. Then my dad and I started making dinner until a little fly landed into are food. So we got a spoon and got it out of there. And then my 2 sisters, my dad, and I started eating dinner and watching tv. So that's all folks.
