	Notes: This is a great component program for writing that addresses informational text as a model; however, it lacks a rich variety of literature that would distinguish it as a CCSS comprehensive program. Did not evaluate the e versions. Key Features: - Patterns contains comprehensive coverage of the writing process, the patterns of development, and research. Part 1 covers “The Writing Process;” Part 2 covers “Readings for Writers;” and Part 3 covers “Working with Sources” - Excellent student support in Patterns with more examples of student writing than any other reader- 16 annotated student essays - Easy Writer is designed for clear, easy reference and gives attention to good writing, not just surface correctness -Up-to-date information on research and documentation offers the latest guidelines for MLA-, APA-, Chicago-, and CSE-style documentation, with color-coded source maps to help students use and cite sources effectively. -Complete coverage of the writing process offers tips on planning, drafting, revising, and editing, plus help with academic writing and portfolios.
