

Dear Miss McMorrow's class,

We heard you have been learning about why you should care about your teeth. What a fascinating essential question. We're sending you a new text to investigate and some questions too that we think will help you answer your essential question. Please read and reread the text like detectives. Look for clues to help you answer the questions. Prepare yourselves for some amazing discoveries!

Sincerely,

Your anonymous toothy friends