Daily Questions

As I read the text, I should ask myself…

- What parts of the text are confusing?
- What new information did I find in the text?
- What is the most important information in the text? (Main Idea)
- Did I notice any connections between the information I found today and information from previous readings?