

Make a copy of this document, rename it, and type a short story. In your story, include some step of the food chain. When you are finished, send your document to your teacher to print and tape into your interactive notebook.