Novel: Frank Einstein: EvoBlaster Belt
Question 1

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

What do you think Frank meant when he said, "Everything living is connected?" Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Novel: Frank Einstein: EvoBlaster Belt
Question 2

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.

Charles Darwin called life the "struggle of existence." What do you think he meant? Use information from our unit to support your answer.