

Gentle Giants

by Wanda

Baleen whales live by eating krill. Krill are so plentiful that baleen whales don't have to chase them. They get all the krill they need just by swimming through the water with their mouths open! Baleen whales have a way of eating that's a lot like herbivores. They graze on food that's all around them instead of chasing down dinner.