

Journal Response Rubric
Criteria	Emerging	Met	Advanced
Represent your thought and opinions	Copied information from text or another person. Not original thought.	Own thoughts and opinions used in answer.	Own thoughts and opinions used in answer and connections are made to personal experiences or ideas.
Supported by Evidence: Was your proposal supported by evidence from the reading that was done.	No evidence from the reading is shared.	Some evidence is shared from the reading.	Compelling evidence is shared from the reading and makes further connections with other resources that have been used.
Complete Answers with multiple details.	Answers are a single word or phrase or the response is not given	Answers are provided with multiple relating details.	Answers are answered with multiple relating details and asks further questions about the reading being done.
Understood by Others	Answers are not able to be understood by another person.	Answers are understood by my peers and/or teacher.	Answers could be understood by anyone even if they aren't reading the same resources.

Stairs: (This can be improved by....) _____

Stars: (Some strengths are....) _____
