

Perseus Reflection

Name _____

PART A

Read the text about Perseus with your group.
Write two complete sentences that summarize the most important parts of your groups' sections.

Student A

Fact 1:

Fact 2:

Student B

Fact 1:

Fact 2:

Student C

Fact 1:

Fact 2:

Below, record three or four attributes that make Perseus a hero and a villain. In the evidence space, write at least one complete sentence to cite the evidence in the text.

HERO

Attributes	Evidence

VILLAIN:

Attributes	Evidence

In your opinion, is Perseus more of a hero or villain?

Explain why.

PART B

Read the text about Perseus on your own.
Think about Perseus and list attributes he possesses in the chart below. Also record evidence from the story to support each trait using complete sentences.

HERO		VILLAIN:
Attributes	Evidence	Attributes	Evidence

In your opinion, is Perseus more of a hero or villain?

Explain why.

Reflection:

Perseus is considered a Greek "hero" even though he didn't always show kindness. In your opinion, is it okay for a hero to be imperfect sometimes?

Explain why it might be bad for a hero to be imperfect.

Explain why it might be good for a hero to be perfect.

