

End of Unit Assessment Rubric

	4	3	2	1
Evidence	Thorough and specific evidence from the sources to show an understanding of the texts and the question.	Sufficient and more general evidence from the sources show an understanding of the text and the question.	Some evidence from the sources may be vague or weak. It may answer the question, but not show understanding.	Minimal evidence from the sources that may not show understanding or answer the question.
Explanation	Effective explanation of the evidence that clearly reveals understanding.	Sufficient explanation of the evidence that somewhat reveals understanding.	Weak or uneven explanation.	Minimal explanation.
Application	Apply understanding and connect the text to self, world, and other text (may have two of the three).	Apply understanding and connect the text to self, world or other text.	Apply understanding and make weak connections.	Minimal application of understanding and connections.
Conventions	Demonstrates an adequate command of sentence structure, grammar usage, and spelling.	Demonstrates a limited command of sentence structure, grammar usage, and spelling.	Demonstrates a partial command of sentence structure, grammar usage, and spelling.	Demonstrates an insufficient command of sentence structure, grammar usage, and spelling.
Total Proficiency Level	4 (Above Standard)	3 (Proficient)	2 (Approaching Standard)	1 (Below Standard)