

It was a breezy September morning and it was the second week of 6th grade! I said "mom I am ready" as I grabbed my backpack from my room.

My mom said "ok let's go" as she grabbed the keys from the kitchen counter.

A few hours later it was time for lunch. When I got to the cafeteria it was so loud and noisy I could barely hear myself talking also I could smell the food from the cafeteria. I saw this girl sitting all alone and sad like wanting to cry maybe she want some company I thought to myself. When I got my lunch I told my friends "lets go sit with that girl over there she is sitting all by herself."

They said "ok."

When we got to where she was sitting I sat right next to her and said "what is your name."

"Aimee" she said shyly.

"Nice to meet you Aimee my name is Lenci and these are my friends Sariah, Evie, and Lauren."

We all were talking for a while and then she said "I have no friends."

I told her that happened to me ,and I gave her advice. I told her to talk to different kids and she would make a lot of different friends.

Aimee has me as a friend now and my friends were her friends but she followed my advice and made new friends. "Thanks for your advice" she said thankfully.

Then I said smiling "your welcome." We were best friends from now on.
