| My piece demonstrates not only mastery of 7th grade skills taught and practiced in class, but my work also exceeds expectations by showing skills above and beyond what we learned in class by making in-depth inferences and real world connections. | My piece demonstrates mastery of 7th grade skills and show my understanding of both the easy and difficult lessons/readings. I may have a few mistakes, but they do not distract from the overall intent of the piece. | My piece demonstrates I understand lessons/readings we've worked on in class, but what I have submitted does not show any depth or understanding beyond the standard guidelines. | What I have submitted shows minimal evidence of independent learning. I may need more assistance to grasp some of the harder concepts we've been working with in class. | What I have submitted shows little or no evidence of my learning or mastery of the skills we've worked on throughout this novel study |
