

Assignment #6

The Makings of a Story

Directions: Today will be the third time you will check in with your partner. You will respond to what they shared, decide on which poem type you will be creating, and then share your WAGS template. You will conclude by asking any further questions you may have.

Tasks:

Fairmont Junior High School	West Junior High School
Go to Google Drive. Open your shared folder and then you shared CONVERSATION document. Review your norms and make sure you abide by them.	Go to Google Drive. Open your shared folder and then your shared CONVERSATION document. Review your norms and make sure you abide by them.
Respond to any new information shared by your partner.	Respond to any new information shared by your partner.
Answer any more questions your partner may have asked.	Answer any more questions your partner may have asked.
Read your partner's response to Assignment #3. Ask follow up questions to get specific details. Ask any other questions you may have or feel are important. Answer any questions they may have asked.	Open your partner's WAGS assignment. Read your partner's WAGS. Ask any clarifying questions you have. Feel free to respond to their writing.
Ask any more questions you may have for your partner. Remember you are trying to find their story.	Ask any more questions you may have for your partner. Remember you are trying to find their story.
Create a new document in your shared folder. Name your document WAGS followed by your last name. For example: WAGS.Morgan	Create a new document in your shared folder. Name your document WAGS followed by your last name. For example: WAGS.Warnock
Type your WAGS information to share with your partner. Make sure your document is in the shared folder.	Type your WAGS information to share with your partner. Make sure your document is in the shared folder.

**After West shares their WAGS document, Fairmont will have a day, prior to Assignment #7, to read and respond to their partner's WAGS document. They will follow the bolded step in West's column.