

1920s Long Essay

With your project group, you will be writing a group long essay on one of the following questions. You will not write on your own topic and you will not know until the day of the essay which topic you will be assigned, so make sure you pay attention to all presentations and are ready for any of the following:

- Were the twenties a retreat from Progressivism or an extension of reform?
- The twenties: Was this really a good time for business growth and production?
- Was this an age of free expression that we associate with the 1920s?
- Are the twenties best remembered as a period of isolationism or of internationalism?
- Was the “Jazz Age” really as carefree as it is portrayed?
- How did the “Roaring 20’s” lead to the Great Depression? Could it have been prevented, why or why not?
