(BOISE) – In an effort to raise awareness and to end child abuse, Superintendent Ybarra will be joining in the 3rd Annual Scentsy Rock-A-Thon supporting Family Advocates, this Friday, September 9th. The Superintendent will be rocking along with many others throughout the day to show her support for families in the community, and support for Family Advocates and their effort to protect Idaho’s youth.

“This is a great event, supporting the fantastic organization of Family Advocates who work day-in and day-out to shed light and create awareness about child abuse,” Superintendent Ybarra said. “I am passionate about efforts that stand up and create awareness against abuse, bullying, and intimidation of children—its efforts like this that build community support and ultimately protect the wellbeing of children.”

The event will take place at the Scentsy Commons located at 2901 E. Pine Ave in Meridian. Superintendent Ybarra will be rocking this Friday from 1:00-2:00pm. For additional information about the 3rd Annual Scentsy Rock-A-Thon, please visit <http://scentsyrockathon.com/>.
