FREE TO ALL SCHOOL DISTRICTS, DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION OFFERS THE IDAHO EDUCATOR CAREER FAIRS

(BOISE) – The Idaho State Department of Education will be offering the Idaho Educator Career Fair in three regions across the state, Superintendent Sherri Ybarra announced today. The Idaho Educator Career fair will support prospective teachers interested in gaining employment in Idaho school districts across the state. This is an opportunity for educators to share the benefits of working in Idaho, and more specifically in an individual school district of interest to prospective educators.

Institutions such as Boise State University, Brigham Young University-Idaho, College of Idaho, Lewis-Clark State College, Idaho State University, Northwest Nazarene University, and University of Idaho, in partnership with Idaho State Department of Education and local superintendents, are sending their graduates and prospective teachers to the Idaho Educator Career Fair's which will be held in the following locations:

Region I

Wednesday, May 11, 2016
Best Western Plus, Coeur d'Alene
506 W Appleway Avenue
Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, 83814

Region III

Tuesday, April 5, 2016
Hampton Inn, Nampa
5750 E. Franklin Road
Nampa, ID 83687

Region IV

TBD, Twin Falls

This event is FREE to all Idaho school districts who are encouraged to sign up. To sign up, or for additional information about the Idaho Educator Career Fair, please contact Lisa Colón at (208) 332-6886 or by email at lcolon@sde.idaho.gov.
