

Collaborative Partners

Below are links to the web sites of some of the Idaho Statewide Family Literacy
Collaborative partners

Corporation for National Services

WEB site provides information about national service programs including AmeriCorps, Americorps*Vista, Senior Corps (Foster Grandparent Program, Retired Senior Volunteer Program, Service Companions Program) and Learn and Serve Program. Also provides other relevant links such as Points of Light Foundation.

Department of Health & Welfare's Early Childhood Information Clearinghouse

Comprehensive site on early childhood (primarily birth to three) and parenting, including a wide variety of topics: health, parenting, special needs, and childcare resources. Serves as a clearinghouse to many state and national sites.

Department of Health & Welfare Infant/Toddler Program

Contains information about the Idaho Infant Toddler program and the early intervention services.

Eastern Idaho Technical College

Collaborative partner with the Madison School District Even Start. Provides adult basic education, English as a second language classes and parenting.

Idaho Department of Health and Welfare

Application for services, program information.

Idaho Education Association

Includes information on professional development, legislation, and member services.

Idaho Head Start Association, Inc

Head Start: Local program information, publications, early childhood links – nationally; training calendar, legislative information, and “common questions” about Head Start.

Idaho Commission for Libraries

Information on reading aloud to children – for parents and librarians; book lists – age appropriate, grant information, resources available from the State Library, profiles of outreach projects.

North Idaho College Head Start

Delineation of vision and mission of organization; connecting information with each service delivery site. We are a comprehensive early childhood family program.

Title 1, Part C, Migrant Program

Information on migrant program regulations, contact staff and phone numbers.

Idaho Public Television

Our kids' site has television to book correlations, activities & media literacy tips.