What were some of the ways your reformer made change?

What were some of the things that affected your reformer and made them want to make a change?