1. A flight number. This should be written on a piece of paper and left on the refrigerator.
2. Contact information for a reporter with The New York Times with instructions on where to leave the materials.
3. 1 Journal page that contains seemingly random information and phone numbers about a “plan” and a group of people “getting on board” etc...
4. 1 note written either on a calendar, journal or piece of paper stating that a classmate of Michael’s covered his class on April 11th and April 15th and April 16th as a favor.
5. 1-2 letter(s) that seem to be from the same batch of love letters found at the original crime scene.