Are some aspects of your organization secretive or can you tell people about whatever you are investigating?
After someone joins the FBI, what kind of special training or scenarios is he or she put through to get them ready for field work?
What is the most common investigation you are assigned?
There have been many important cases. Such as, 9/11, The Uni-bomber, Al Capone. What is the worst case you have ever dealt with? Was this case a high security case and did it go public?
You must have had many cases. Are you allowed to tell us the worst or scariest case you have been on?
"In a recruitment letter written by the FBI in 2014, it states that the job of an FBI agent will never be the same and that the job is very physically demanding and exciting. Would you say that this statement is true? Has your job (within the FBI) or the setup of your job changed much while you were active, and if so, how?"
What happens to an agent if they tell someone classified information?
How much time do you spend away from home?
When you are on an investigation, what type of materials do you use?
What does the FBI do with the evidence they have collected?
When a local event occurs and the FBI checks it out, do they ask the local citizens about it?
On October 2002 two snipers killed ten people and one of them was a FBI agent. They had terrorized Washington D.C. for three weeks. Many people were scared and some had lost their FBI friend who was shot down. What does the Bureau do for the family of fallen agents? If the agent wasn't part of your department, are you able to attend memorials?
The World Trade Center and Pentagon were bombed on September 11th, 2001. 3,000 people were killed and the United States and Britain launched airstrikes on targets in Afghanistan. What role did the FBI have in determining the consequences for these actions? If not, why?
If you could have any job (ex. attorney) in the FBI, what would it be?
What was your dream job as a kid?
Do you think that the FBI can fairly investigate Hillary Clinton and her possible misuse of classified material through use of her own private e-mail server even though she ran for president?
Snowden says that the FBI can get into iOS devices. Do you have a comment on that?
It has been said that being able to bring criminals to justice is the best part of your job. With many different elements to your job and so many things you do, you must have one thing in particular you like best. What is your favorite thing about being an F.B.I. Agent? Why is this your favorite thing: What made you choose this out of everything?
Would you recommend being an FBI Special Agent to someone? Why or why not? Is being an FBI Special Agent really cool? Should I become an FBI Special Agent?
There have been terrorist attacks on 3/11, 9/11 and 12/11. Have there been any other attacks on the same date like 9/11, 3/11, 12/11?
At the field office where you are employed, how well are you financially supported, for the job? What is the largest case that your office is able to handle before needing to call in for backup? Furthermore during your time at the Bureau has your office ever exhausted its resources on a case, and been forced to call for reinforcements.
What has to happen for the FBI to investigate outside the country?