Thought balloons from each character for each panel of action. Action shown should clearly show what each character was thinking during that part of the action scene. Thought balloons should be direct quotes. At least 4 separate panels of Illustration (comic book style) with characters, setting, and dialogue that stays true to the text in the book (does not have to be 3). The assignment for this assignment asks:

Directions: In the space below, you will illustrate the incident between Cassie and Lillian Jean that takes place on pages 179-181.

Name ____________________________ Date ____________ Period ________