Reflections on Virtual Travel Agent Unit

Essential Questions of unit

1. Are there any benefits to seeing the world and how might visiting other countries/cultures influence our thinking afterward?

2. To what extent does where you live influence how you live?

3. How can someone transition from a place of comfort to a place that’s unfamiliar?

4. How do we know the information on a website is trustworthy?

As you complete the following reflections, use complete sentences and include the name of your country in each response. (Notice this country appears in each question)

1. What was the most important experience you wanted the traveler to experience in this country? Explain why, using evidence from your blog posts or itinerary.

________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

2. What would be a similar cultural, historical or entertainment experience here in the U.S.? Choose only one to respond What specifically would be similar to the experience in this country?

________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
3. How might traveling in this country influence the traveler’s thinking? What kind of impact might this travel experience have on a person’s life in the U.S.?
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

4. What is one thing unique to the culture of this country that is different from anything we might experience here in the U.S.? Would this be uncomfortable for you and why?
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

5. What would be the hardest part of traveling in this country?
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
6. Explain in 2 or more paragraphs why the websites you used for research were appropriate for this project. Be sure to address the criteria for evaluating websites. Include the vocabulary words authority, currency and vet or vetted in your reflections.