2018 Summer Workshop Series: Meeting and Assessing the Idaho State Science and Literacy Standards

Sponsored by the Idaho State Department of Education and the Boise State Writing Project

LEARN HOW TO ENGAGE YOUR STUDENTS IN COLLABORATIVE SCIENTIFIC INQUIRY TO ACHIEVE DEEP SCIENTIFIC UNDERSTANDING AND CREATE PERFORMANCE-BASED ASSESSMENTS TO MEET THE NEW STANDARDS!

REGISTER:
https://secure.touchnet.com/C20444_ustores/web/store_main.jsp?STOREID=168&SINGLESTORE=true

REGION III Boise and REGION IV Twin Falls: June 5-8

REGION III Nampa and REGIONS V & VI Pocatello: June 12-15

REGIONS I & II Moscow: June 19-22

- Explore the new Idaho State Science Standards for your grade level & content areas, identify connections with the Idaho Content Literacy standards
- Identify key instructional shifts that will help you meet the standards
- Learn how to create performance assessments aligned with the standards
- Explore inquiry strategies for actively teaching to the standards
- Engage with literacy strategies to help your students read scientific texts
- Learn actively and engage in hands-on science and collaboration
- Workshops led by a team of Idaho science teachers from the elementary, middle, and high school levels
- Introduction to our new state assessment model
- Professional development credit available for purchase in addition to complimentary lunch and morning coffee

For more information contact Dawn Brown at dawnbrown1@boisestate.edu