

I suggest retitling the document to CNP Direct Cert Template CSV so you know which one to grab from your desktop – since you won't know once you've converted which is which

Make sure that you are using the correct template and that none of the headers have been changed

You must save the Excel document as a CSV (Comma delimited) in order for the system to recognize and upload