Content standards, advanced opportunities. CARES funds among topics at SBOE meeting

(BOISE) – Superintendent of Public Instruction Sherri Ybarra and her staff will report on several programs and areas of keen public interest during the State Department of Education portion of today’s State Board of Education meeting.

Presentations will include the 2020 Outcomes Report for Idaho’s Advanced Opportunities program, an update on federal Coronavirus relief funding for education, and progress on rewriting Idaho Content Standards in English Language Arts, Math and Science. Other updates will focus on mastery-based education and assessment and accountability.
