Trainings were offered in regions across the state.

Over half of attendees were General Educators.

Attendees representation by grades taught:

- Elementary: 79%
- Secondary: 17%
  - All: 4%

The training met the following objectives:

- Increase the collective knowledge of RtI: 85%
- Supported continued implementation of RtI: 86%
- Set the stage for change: 88%

This training is the beginning of great change!

This will be a paradigm shift in the way we do RTI!
Response to Intervention Training from fall 2018 to spring 2019.

• 152 total participants in 8 school districts and 4 regions across the state.
• Overall satisfaction was 89%.
• 69% of attendees reported being general education teachers, 15% special education teachers, 10% administrators, and 6% other.
• 77% of attendees were at the elementary level, 17% secondary level, and 4% all levels.
• 86% of attendees agreed that the training increased the collective knowledge of RTI.
• 86% of attendees agreed the training supported continued implementation of RTI.
• 88% of attendees agreed the training set the stage for change.
• Participants said; this training is the beginning of great change and this will be a paradigm shift in the way we do RTI!